AQUINAS COURT

a place you can call home

You may be thinking of moving and in search of a place to call home. Your happiness and wellbeing is at the forefront of what we stand for. Whether you are downsizing, searching for convenience, or wanting to build new friendships, we can support you.

Aquinas Court is an intimate boutique style village community surrounded by cottage gardens in the heart of the lower Blue Mountains. Located in picturesque Springwood, this lovely retirement village offers 30 two-bedroom units and a relaxed and peaceful lifestyle. Friendly neighbours and a committed village manager ensure residents at Aquinas Court feel welcome and well supported.

The village is in a prime location with public transport at your doorstep, the Community Hub across the road, Springwood Village is a short 5-minute walk away and offers a great selection of cafés, restaurants and boutique specialty shops. Aquinas Court also hosts regular social events, gatherings, yoga and residents can take advantage of Springwood Sports Club located next door.

We work towards creating a warm and inviting space that caters to your personal and social needs by offering the opportunities to participate in group outings and activities.
